IS IT DANGEROUS TO BE RIGHT, WHEN THE GOVERNMENT IS WRONG??

Sophia Model United Nations stands as a beacon for fostering global citizenship and leadership among young minds. Dedicated to promoting peace, understanding, and critical thinking, SMUN brings together over 300 delegates from 15 schools to engage in constructive dialogue on pressing geopolitical issues.

By simulating the United Nations, SMUN empowers youth to explore diplomacy, debate, and cooperative problem-solving, preparing them to become future leaders equipped to tackle global challenges.

CONTINUOUS CRISIS COMMITTEE

Beyond the political debates lies the urgent need to alleviate human suffering. This year, the CCC focuses on the African Union, addressing the intricate web of political, economic, and cultural conflicts that fuel instability across various African states. Delegates have begun engaging in continuous deliberation and decisive actions to seek long-term solutions, promoting development and peace on the continent.

Imagine a world where high school students transform into cunning diplomats, wielding the power of their words like seasoned statesmen! In the electrifying arena of Model United Nations, young minds are thrust into the whirlwind of international intrigue, negotiating treaties by day and drafting world-changing resolutions by night. Picture this: future presidents and prime ministers, draped in their finest debate attire, passionately advocating for their nation's honor with the fervor of Shakespearean orators, every whispered alliance and bold declaration a high-stakes spectacle, reshaping the world of mere mortals in the hands of visionary global thinkers! Enter the grand theater of Model United Nations, where students morph into the architects of global politics and international relations. The stage is a magnificent arena, and the scene is set for a grand performance. As they take the stage, their voices rise in a chorus of ideas, as they engage in a series of negotiations, their words echoing through the assembly with the force of a thousand arguments. Philosophers of the world, take note of the brilliant leaders who are emerging, their words and debates a testament to the power of the human mind.
